

Meeting with Rubens

With this 3 to 4 hours Tour program you will meet Rubens in the city of Antwerp. Accompanied by a Rubens fanatic guide you will walk through the painter's city to look for the known BUT also for the unknown places related to Rubens.

You will visit his house and his garden and who knows, maybe you will meet the master himself, or his young wife, Helena Formant, or maybe even one of his most famous pupils, Sir Anthony van Dyck.

When walking through the city you will also visit the house of Nicolas Rockox, at that time Mayor of the city of Antwerp, and one of Rubens' good friends AND master. It was Nicolas Rockox who ordered some famous paintings as eg: the Adoration of the Magi.

You will also visit the Cathedral of Antwerp where one finds some of the most famous paintings of Rubens.

03 to 04 Hours programme including:

- 01 guide per 20 people
- Entrance and visit at the Ruben house, Rockoxhouse and Cathedral
- Meeting with one "personality"
- One drink during the walk
- Coordination by 01 operation manager @dmire

Rate as from € 39,00 pp
