GHENT SCENIC CRAFT BEER WALKS !

DOK BREWING CO  NIEUWLAND - LEIE - PORTUS GANDA
2.5 km / 1.55 mi - 30 min

DOK BREWING COMPANY - Founded in 2018, this great craft beer brewery and bustling taproom has 30 beers on tap, featuring their own and guest beers. You'll find wonderful food and a lively atmosphere too!

DE HOPDUVEL - Just around the corner from Dok Brewing Company, you can find many stores in the Dok Noord shopping center, but this is a must-visit! An expansive selection of beers and homebrew equipment.

INDUSTRIEMUSEUM - A captivating museum about Ghent in the Industrial Revolution, housed in a former cotton mill. Don't miss out on this gem often skipped by tourists. www.industriemuseum.be / Thurs.-Tues.

VAN EYCK SWIMMING POOL - Don't be fooled by its modern looks on the outside! Built in 1886 and renovated in a stunning Art Deco style in 1932, this is the oldest swimming pool in Belgium!

RUINS OF ST. BAVO'S ABBEY - The remains of this 10th/11th century abbey is a sight to behold. The entire site has a bloody history that could make Game of Thrones fans blush! April-Oct. / Fri.-Sun. / 2-6 p.m.

STROOM BROWERS - The youngest craft beer brewery in town, but it has proven its worth in no time! Try some of their beers on tap in this cozy tasting room, or pick up some cans featuring amazing art from Belgian artists.

DOK BREWING CO  ALTERNATIVE DOCKS ROUTE
3 km / 1.86 mi - 38 min

HANDELSDOK AND OTHER GHENT DOCKS - This entirely renovated stretch makes for an enjoyable stroll or bike through hip industrial areas, with many authentic and protected cranes and warehouses along the way.

HAM POWER STATION - Ghent's skyline is not only defined by churches and cathedrals, but also its many chimneys from old industrial sites. This one looms over the city at a staggering 102 m (335 ft)!

BROUWBAR  VRIJDAGMARKT - BAUDELO
1.5 km / 0.93 mi - 18 min

BROUWBAR - Hidden in the charming Oudburg is one of Ghent's finest brewpubs! This nanobrewery brews all of its beers on site, it really doesn't get fresher than this!

VRIJDAGMARKT - An airy square packed with charming local cafes, and a statue to Jacob van Artevelde, a significant figure in Ghent's history who met an untimely death from a mob. For details and more juicy stories, check WWW.HOPPESTRAAT.BE for a guided tour!

L'AMUZETTE - Hop off the route along Ottogracht and Krommewal and visit this gorgeous shop for gifts and drinks! In the back, you'll find many great (non-alcoholic) beers in the fridge and on the shelves!

 STROLLING ALONG THE LEIE  BROUWBAR
1.5 km / 0.93 mi - 18 min

BAR BEENHOUEW - With 15 taps and many fridges full of fresh IPA's, Wild Ales and probably 100 other styles from every corner of the world, this is one of Ghent's most extensive beer bars.

DE KUIP (CENTER AREA) - Welcome to the Manhattan of The Middle Ages! If you're not in a rush, make a small detour along the Korenmarkt (square east of Graslei).

GRAVENSTEEN CASTLE - If there is one historic site you should pay the entrance fee for, it's this! Local comedian Wouter Deprez wrote the audio guide and it makes the gruesome history of the castle very digestible. And what a view from the top of the keep!

HUIS VAN ALIJN - Beautiful former almshouse with public courtyard, housing a museum about everyday 20th century life! Closed on Wed.

 KOUTER - ZUID
2.2 km / 1.37 mi - 28 min

OLD COURTHOUSE - The only thing left of the original courthouse (ravaged by a fire in 1926) is the imposing, neo-classical exterior flanked with pillars. It still houses the court of appeal, for the moment.

VOORUIT & ARTS CENTER "VIERNULVIER" - Opened in 1913 as the ballroom for the local Socialist movement, it's now one of the most active arts centers and concert venues in town. Its cafe has some good beers too! www.viernulvier.gent / Mon. - Sat. / Open from 12pm-12am

DE KROOK - Ghent has modern architecture as well! This public library is definitely worth a visit for its spacious and contemporary interiors too. Mon. - Sat. / 10 a.m. - 7 p.m.

KLEIN BEGIJNHOF - One of Ghent's most hidden gems and worth the small detour along Lange Violettestraat. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is so calm and beautiful, it's hard to believe this former convent is so close to the city center. Open from 6:30 a.m. - 10 p.m.

What is HOPPESTRAAT anyway?

Well, it is a street in the north of Ghent where beer nerd Jasper Pollet resides! On his website WWW.HOPPESTRAAT.BE you can book a guided tour combining history and craft beer through Ghent, arrange craft beer tastings or check out the expertly curated monthly Hoppestraat beer subscription!

That's not all! Follow HOPPESTRAAT on Facebook, Instagram and YouTube to read many interesting blog and vlog posts about beer, styles and breweries from all over the world!

There's more to discover in Ghent!

This map focuses on a few of Hoppestraat's favourite innovative and modern craft beer experiences, but these are not the only ways to enjoy craft beer in Ghent! Check out breweries like Heilig Hart Brouwerij and Totem, or bars like Kantien, Gitane, Ganzerik, Edel Rot, Huzaar and more!

And don't forget there are also other local breweries and hundreds of bars in Ghent that offer more traditional Belgian beers!
